

TROY CHAMBER'S NON-PROFIT NETWORK

For more information about the Non-Profit Network, please contact Troy Chamber Vice President Jody House at (248) 641-3694 or jody@troychamber.com or visit www.troychamber.com.

Updated 4/5/17

Alliance Mobile Health

Contact: Julie Williams, (248)457-0344, x229, jwilliams@alliancemobilehealth.org - www.alliancemobilehealth.org

ALS Association of Michigan Chapter

Contact: Jeanne Pingle, (248)6802-6540, jean@alsa-michigan.org, www.alsa-michigan.org

The ALS Association is the only national not-for-profit health organization dedicated solely to the fight against ALS. The ALS Association covers all the bases including research, patient and community services, public education, and advocacy, while providing help and hope to those facing the disease. The Michigan Chapter focuses primarily on helping local pALS (person with ALS) and families living with ALS.

American Cancer Society

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide community-based voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy, and service. For more information on patient services and local community events call (800) ACS-2345 or go to <http://www.cancer.org>. www.Relayforlife.org/TroyMI, Contact: Rochelle Holman, for opportunities in Troy, (248) 663-3419, rochelle.holman@cancer.org.

American Heart Association

Contact: Mindy Lopus, mindy.lopus@heart.org, (248) 936-5818 – www.heart.org

Angel Workers Foundation

Contact: Lawrence Davis, (313) 207-6597, davislwr@msn.com

Area Agency on Aging 1-B

Contact: Ann Langford, (248) 262- 9942, alangford@aaa1b.com, www.aaa1B.com

Assistance League of Southeastern Michigan

Assistance League of Michigan is a nonprofit corporation comprised of volunteers. Their purpose is to serve Michigan through a program of philanthropic programs, which are financially supported by grants, tributes/memorials and fundraisers. To supplement fundraising efforts and to create a stable source of income for philanthropic programs, Assistance League of Michigan opened The ReSale Connection, an upscale thrift shop, in Rochester, Michigan on March 17, 2000. This venture is fully managed and staffed by our volunteers. Donations of clothing, jewelry, and housewares - all gently used - are sold in our shop at 204 S. Main Street in Rochester. Contact: Betty Zych, (248) 852-8530. www.semich.assistanceleague.org

Bettye Harris Larynx Cancer Awareness Center

BLCAC is an organization which provides head and neck screening. It strives to educate and spark awareness of larynx cancer. Contact: Chineva Early, cearly212@gmail.com, (313) 575-1626 – www.blcac.org

Boys & Girls Club of Troy

The Boys & Girls Club of Troy is a youth development organization providing a positive, safe place for children, ages 6-18, to interact, learn, grow and develop as contributing members of the community. A professional staff, supported by volunteers, provides fun activities, homework help, tutoring in a supervised setting. Contact: Jeff Evans, CEO, (248) 689-1687 - www.bgctroy.org/

Community Media Network (CMNtv)

Contact: Deb Renshaw, deb@cmntv.org, (248) 589-7778 – www.cmntv.org

The Community House

The Community House is a nonprofit that helps strengthen communities by providing educational, cultural and wellness programs, & scholarships to improve people's personal and professional lives. Contact: Gigi Nichols, (248) 644-5832, www.tchserves.org

Community Housing Network

Community Housing Network, Inc. is committed to creating and maintaining long-term, affordable housing for people who are homeless and those with disabilities in Southeast Michigan. This is made possible through the ongoing support of the Oakland County Community Mental Health Authority, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, additional funders and community support. Contact: Marylynn Hewitt, mghewitt@chninc.net, (248) 269-1336 - <http://www.communityhousingnetwork.org/>

Detroit Cristo Rey

Contact: Pamela Jackson, pjackson@detroitcristorey, (313) 943-2747,x327 – www.detroitcristorey.org

Easterseals Michigan

Easterseals Michigan works to change the way the world defines and views disabilities by making profound, positive differences in people's lives every day. Contact: Katie Porritt, (248) 475-6400, email: kporritt@essmichigan.org, www.essmichigan.org

Friends of the Troy Public Library

The Friends of the Troy Public Library are an all-volunteer, member-supported 501(c) 3 non-profit that works to promote and support the Troy Public Library through volunteerism, donations, fund-raising and advocacy. We create opportunities for the community to get involved and invested in the library by volunteering their time, donating funds and materials, shopping in our two shops or participating in special programs or events. Contact: Sue Matthews, (248) 524-3569, www.FriendsTPL.org

Gifts For All God's Children

GFAGC meets needs, brings hope, and shares the love of Christ with at-risk children in Southeastern Michigan. GFAGC sponsors individual urban tours, Valentine and Easter parties, and summer camps. It provides school supplies, Easter baskets, Christmas gifts of clothing, tutoring and toys to at-risk children. GFAGC strives to connect inner city children back into the inner city churches. Contact: Patti Jacques, pjacques@giftsforallgodchildren.org, (248) 933-7472, www.giftsforallgodchildren.org

Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern MI

Gleaners strengthens the community's commitment to reducing hunger by managing an efficient, cost-effective system of bringing together food resources to provide social service agencies with the means to dispense healthful, nutritious meals from their soup kitchens and/or food pantries. Gleaners distributes nearly 39 million pounds of food to over 500 agencies in Southeastern Michigan. Contact: Natalie Davidson, Food Drive Coordinator, (313) 923-3535, X207 – www.gcfb.org, ndavidson@gcfb.org,

Guardians For Animals

Contact: Alexandria Whitney, A56XW@Comcast.net, (313) 770-7827 – www.guardiansforanimals.org

Habitat for Humanity

Contact: Elizabeth Wyss, elizabeth@habitatoakland.org, (248) 891-5966 – www.habitatoakland.org

Healing Complex Kids

Healing Complex Kids provides hope and healing to families that are struggling with how to best help their special needs children. We have a strong dedication and interest in helping all families that struggle with finding the resources they need to maintain family stability. Our on-going and long-term mission is to provide families with the resources they need in the form of education, awareness, and interventions so they and their children can have the best family experience possible and help their children grow up in healthy, loving families. Contact: Julie Cadman, CEO, (248) 370-8040 – www.HealingComplexKids.org

ICU Mobile Detroit

We provide free pregnancy testings, limited obstetrical ultrasounds to underserved women who are pregnant, and connect them with resources in the community. Contact: Bev Dixon, Director, (248)766-1845, Bev@icudetroit.com – www.icubirthchoice.com

Japhet School

Our mission is to nurture and prepare each child for life by integrating character education with a strong academic program. Japhet has been recognized as a National School of Character by the Character Education Partnership. We are an ISACS school, serving students in preschool through 8th grade. Contact: Cathy Mohan, (248) 585-9150, cathy,mohan@japhetschool.org – www.japhetschool.org

Judson Center

Judson Center is a non-profit human service agency that provides compassionate, comprehensive services to children and families throughout southeast Michigan. Since 1924, we have been changing fates and restoring childhoods for children who have been abused, neglected, and helping others who are challenged by developmental disabilities, severe emotional impairment and autism spectrum disorder. Our four program areas include; Autism Connections, Child & Family Services, Disability Services and Mental Health Services. Contact Peggy Kerr, Community Engagement, (248) 837-2019, or peggy_kerr@judsoncenter.org. www.judsoncenter.org

Junior Achievement of Southeastern MI, Inc.

JA programs change lives – giving young people the tools to survive in the adult world by teaching three crucial lessons: personal financial responsibility, workforce readiness and entrepreneurial thinking. The vision of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan is inspiring and preparing young people to succeed in a global economy, which is accomplished through volunteers who take the time to teach the JA curriculum and provide role model behavior and mentorship to students in kindergarten through twelfth grade. JA serves ten counties in Southeastern Michigan including Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw, Livingston, Monroe, St. Clair, Shiawassee, Lapeer and Genesee. Contact Cindy Bazner, Senior Vice President & COO, (313) 962-5689 – cbazner@jamichigan.org - <http://www.jamichigan.org/>

JVS

Contact: Teresa Schwartz, (248)233-4243, TSchwartz@jvsdet.org, www.jvsdet.org

Kiwanis Club of Troy

Contact: Samuel Impastato, simpasta2@yahoo.com, (586) 524-9251

The Kresge Foundation

The Kresge Foundation is a $3 billion private, national foundation that works to expand opportunities in America's cities through grant making and investing in arts and culture, education, environment, health, human services and community development efforts in Detroit. In 2012, the Board of Trustees approved 410 awards totaling $130.5 million; $150.3 million was paid out to grantees over the course of the year. Information at www.kresge.org. Contact: Cynthia Powors, (248) 643-9630.

Leadership Troy

Leadership Troy consists of volunteer representatives from various Community organizations, Troy School District and high schools, businesses and individuals that strive to promote Troy Community improvement programs, the exchange of community information, and provide a venue to recognize volunteers and corporate citizens that positively impact the quality of life in Troy. Programs and events include; the Annual Community Awards Banquet to Recognize Troy's Distinguished Citizen, Community Organization Outstanding Volunteers and Outstanding Community-Minded Business, and Public Forums on topics of interest to the citizens of Troy and surrounding communities. To join, or for more information, contact Jim Cyrulewski, 248-680-9411, www.leadershiptroy.org.

Magic Soccer Club

Contact: Linda Schlaupitz, Director, (248) 941-5160, las1978@comcast.net, www.patosmagicsoccer.com

Manresa Jesuit Retreat House

Contact: Rita Tinetti, Development Director, (248) 644-4933, x815, rtinetti@manresa-sj.org, www.manresa-sj.org

Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) Michigan

Founded by a mother whose daughter was killed by a drunk driver, Mothers Against Drunk Driving® (MADD) is the nation's largest nonprofit working to protect families from drunk driving and underage drinking. With the help of those who want a safer future, MADD's Campaign to Eliminate Drunk Driving® will end this danger on America's roads. PowerTalk 21™ is the national day for parents to talk with their kids about alcohol, using the proven strategies of Power of Parents™ to reduce the risk of underage drinking. And as one of the largest victim services organizations in the U.S., MADD also supports drunk driving victims and survivors at no charge, serving one person every eight minutes. For victims and survivors in Michigan, call 1-800-323-6233. Contact: Tyler MacEachran, (248) 528-1745, www.madd.org/mi

MORC, Inc.

The Macomb-Oakland Regional Center, Inc (MORC) is a non-profit agency that provides wide-ranging services to individuals with developmental disabilities in Southeast Michigan. MORC's mission is to serve men, women, and children with differing abilities so they may, as true citizens, celebrate life, freedom, and independence in the community. MORC currently provides services and supports to over 5,100 individuals with developmental disabilities and their families with the goal of helping them live more independently in the community setting of their choice. Contact: Cynthia Burdi, (586) 484-6153, Cynthia.Burdi@morcinc.org or <http://www.morcinc.org/>

New Horizons Rehabilitation Services

Contact: Angela Pena, apena@newhorizonsrehab.org, (248) 340-0559, www.NewHorizonsRehab.org

Oakland County Child Care Council

The Oakland County Child Care Council provides resources and referral information for families seeking child care. We conduct skill-building workshops for parents, hold low-cost professional development classes for child care providers and work with businesses to find child care solutions for their employees. We are advocates on child care issues for the community. We are dedicated to promoting the well-being of Oakland County's children. The Oakland County Child Care Council has been advocating and promoting quality child care since 1973. The Council is funded by public and private sources. It is a membership agency that is governed by a board of directors and managed by a professional staff. Contact: Susan Allen, (248)333-9545,x7, sallen@oaklandchildcare.org - www.oaklandchildcare.org

Oakland Community College

Contact: Katie Rusak, Executive Director of Foundation, (248) 341-2130, www.oaklandcc.edu

Oakland Community College (OCC) enrolls more than 24,000 students each semester – Michigan's largest collegiate freshman class and third largest undergraduate enrollment in the State (following U of M and MSU). More than 11% of all Oakland County high school graduates begin their college careers at OCC seeking associate's degrees and/or certificates in one of 130 outstanding academic program areas. OCC has one of Michigan's highest transfer rates to four-year institutions, and has top-rated programs in many disciplines including Nursing, Culinary Arts and Workforce Development.

On My Own of Michigan

On My Own of Michigan, founded in 1997, is dedicated to helping adults with mild developmental disabilities become independent, social and contributing members of the community. We believe that individuals living with mild developmental disabilities have the right to choose where they work, live, play and worship. On My Own provides guidance and counseling and gives people the opportunity to live productive and fulfilled lives through our supervised Social/Recreational and Apartment Programs. Contact: Lesley Scharfenberg or Bruce Benson, (248) 649-3739, <http://www.onmyownofmi.org/>

Pregnancy Centers of Southeastern Michigan

PCSEM is a network of 16 area pregnancy centers and adoption agencies offering free services to underserved women. Services include pregnancy tests, pre-natal & parenting education, community referrals and baby supplies. Some centers offer free ultrasounds, STI testing/treatments, sex risk avoidance (SRA), teaching in schools to over 20,000 students. We are funded entirely by donations, operating primarily by 600 volunteers and helping an estimated 10,000 women and men every year. Contact: Karen Jewell, (248)939-5900, www.BlueWaterBabies.org

Ridgedale Players

Contact: Diane Dillard, (248)988-7049, kddillard@comcast.net, www.ridgedaleplayers.com

Right To Life-LIFESPAN

Right to Life LIFESPAN is a local pro-life organization working to restore respect for life in laws and in actions for all stages of human development - from conception to natural death. Right to Life LIFESPAN educates its supporters and the community on the life issues of abortion, euthanasia, infanticide, and human embryo exploitation by provisioning for expectant mothers and referrals to pro-life crisis pregnancy centers; and by inviting the community to advocate for pro-life legislation. Contact: Irene Tharp, Executive Director, (248) 816-1546 - <http://www.rtl-lifespan.org/>

Rotary Club of Troy

The Rotary promotes and provides humanitarian service to the community, locally and globally, through volunteerism, financial support and daily living of the Rotary motto of "service above self." Contact: Eileen Heasley, eheasley@avisionforcleanwater.org, (248) 689-5634; Michael O'Shaughnessey, moshaughnessey@yahoo.com, (248) 229-7075, <http://troyrotary.net>, or Daiva Rugienius (949) 735-2779, corpgolf@flash.net, or Dr. Mike Coury, dr.mike.coury@gmail.com, (248) 417-0991.

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army's programs include: disaster relief services, day care centers, summer camps, holiday assistance, services for the aging, AIDS education and residential services, medical facilities, shelters for battered women and children, family and career counseling, vocational training, correction services, and substance abuse rehabilitation. Contact: Jodie Brzezinski, Donor Relations Director, (248) 894-6776, Jodie_brzezinski@usc.salvationarmy.org. – <http://www.salmich.org>

Senior Meals on Wheels

Contact: Rachael Grushko, Director of Fund Development, (248)408-6900, rachael@seniormealsonwheels.com, www.SeniorMealsonWheels.com

Spaulding for Children

Established in 1968, Spaulding for Children has helped more than 1000 children find permanent homes and has trained more than 100,000 persons nationwide. The Agency is comprised of three service entities, Child and Family Services, the National Resource Center for Adoption and the Spaulding Institute for Family and Community Development, together we work to strengthen families and keep children safe. Contact: Addie Williams, President/CEO, (248) 443-7080, www.spaulding.org

Special Olympics Michigan

Special Olympics Michigan (SOMI) is about creating opportunities for people with intellectual disabilities to succeed through year-round sports training and competitions. Athletes develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage and experience joy, friendship and community. SOMI is changing lives and changing people's perceptions about intellectual disabilities. Through the Special Olympics movement, people around the world with intellectual disabilities are being embraced in society as opposed to being cast aside. SOMI currently serves nearly 20,000 athletes statewide, including 1,500 in Oakland County, through 24 different sports, with over 20,000 volunteers supporting the program. Athletes participate in SOMI's life-changing programs at no cost to them or their families. Contact: Taylor Baroli, (248)291-4494, taylor.baroli@somi.org - www.somi.org

St. Andrews Society of Detroit

Founded in 1849, the St. Andrews Society of Detroit is the oldest benevolent organization in Michigan. It proudly celebrates its Scottish culture with focus on relieving the distressed and unfortunate with priority given to those of Scottish/American lineage. The Kilgour Scottish Centre is the new home for the Society and is open for rental for any event. Contact: Rhonda Richter, (248) 526-1849, www.DetroitScots.com, or rrichter@detroitscots.com

Troy Community Coalition for the Prevention of Drug and Alcohol Abuse

The Troy Community Coalition is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for all who live or work in Troy by promoting a lifestyle free from the abuse of alcohol and drugs and its impact on behavioral health. The Coalition utilizes multiple strategies to engage all sectors of the community and has a broad volunteer base. In 1997 it received national recognition as an effective community prevention coalition. Contact: Nancy Morrison, Executive Director, (248) 823-5088 - <http://www.troycoalition.com>

Troy Community Foundation

Contact: Doug Tietz, (248) 740-7600, doug@doug tietz.com, www.communityfoundationoftroy.org

Troy Historical Society

The Troy Historical Society was organized in 1966 to promote the appreciation and awareness of the rich heritage of the citizens of Troy, to encourage preservation of records, pictures, structures, and other objects of local historical significance, and to sponsor programs to carry out these purposes. The Troy Historical Society also operates the Troy Historic Village. Contact: Ward Randol, Trustee, (248) 524-3570 - <http://www.troyhistoricvillage.org/>

Troy Nature Society – Stage Nature Center

The Troy Nature Society, founded in 2010, is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide resources and education to inspire the appreciation and preservation of nature. Contact: Carla Reeb, (248) 688-9703. TNS - Where people and nature meet! www.stagenaturecenter.org

Troy People Concerned

Troy People Concerned is a service organization aiming to help those citizens of Troy who may find themselves in a crisis situation and to help them to help themselves. It serves as an information center and as a referral agency to direct clients to the proper assisting program. Troy People Concerned offers rides for seniors to doctor's appointments, leaf raking and matching gift basket donors and recipients. (248) 528-9199 – www.troypeopleconcerned.org

Troy Women's Charitable Association

The Troy Women's Charitable Association is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit volunteer organization whose members raise funds and support programs within their community. troywomensassociation@gmail.com, <http://www.troywomensassociation.org/>
Contact: Ann Comiskey, umannie@aol.com, (248) 689-7459, or, jschmitz59@yahoo.com (248) 250-9439.

Troy Youth Assistance

The mission of Troy Youth Assistance is to strengthen youth and families and to reduce the incidence of juvenile delinquency, child abuse, and child neglect through community involvement. Volunteers work with professional staff to develop enriching programs aimed at enhancing family and community relationships. Contact: Karen Wonsowicz (248) 823-5095 – www.troyyouthassistance.org

United Community Family Services

Contact: Clair Konja, (248) 528-0130, www.UCFamilyServices.org, ckonja@ucfamilyservices.org

United Way for Southeastern MI

Contact: Sarah Allsbrooks, (503) 860-2106, sarah.allsbrooks@liveunitedsem.org

Walsh College

Walsh College delivers a high-quality, practical business education to more than 4,400 upper-division undergraduate and graduate students in Troy, Novi, and Clinton Township, as well as online. Bachelor's degrees are offered in accountancy, business information technology, or business administration. Graduate students can pursue an MBA or master's degree in a variety of business disciplines. Specialty certifications can also be earned. Contact: Dr. Jonathan Campbell, Associate Vice President, Academic Administration, (248) 823-1268 – www.walshcollege.edu/

Woodside Bible Church

Contact: Eric Haven, Community Relations Pastor, (248) 891-3688, www.woodsidebible.org