

JASON L. PAULATEER

Vice President – Market Manager

PNC

Jason L. Paulateer is a Market Manager in Michigan for PNC, a member of The PNC Financial Services Group. He is responsible for managing the Community Development team activities for PNC Bank throughout the State of Michigan. Jason's work has been instrumental to the financing activities in public private partnerships as well as the delivery of financial education programming throughout the state of Michigan.

Prior to his role as Market Manager, Jason served as Development Advisor for PNC in the Greater Michigan region. His work includes the historic rehabilitation of the headquarters of Inner City Christian Federation in Grand Rapids, and the construction of the Stadium District project in Lansing, the development of the Heart of the City Health Center in Grand Rapids and the redevelopment of the Metropolitan Center, formerly the 100 Block, in Downtown Kalamazoo, MI.

In addition to his financing work, Jason is a staunch advocate for Financial Education in the community. He believes Matthew 25:23 "You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities" and that financial education is one of the keys to developing that faithfulness. He's served as an evening volunteer facilitator of Financial Peace University for many years prior to marketing PNC's robust financial education curriculum.

He is a life member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated where he formerly served as local chapter treasurer, representative for the State of Michigan and Chairman of its District Convention. Jason is a member of Leadership Oakland XXVI, a 2013 graduate of the Larson Leadership Institute and a 2008 graduate of the Leadership Michigan Program. He is Vice President on the board of Communities First Inc. of Flint. He is also a board member for Gleaners Community Food Bank, CEDAM, Michigan Magnet Fund, Detroit LISC, and Matrix Human Services of Detroit.

Jason was most recently awarded the 2015 Community Hero Award and Michigan Chronicle 2013 Men of Excellence Award for his leadership. His community involvement was recognized by Grand Rapids Community College, which granted him the W.W. Plummer GIANT Humanitarian Award. The Grand Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce awarded him Financial Services Advocate of the Year during its annual Minority Business Celebration. He was named to the Who's Who in Black Detroit Inaugural Edition. He received the "Up and Coming Alumnus of the Year" Award from his alma mater - Grand Valley State University's Seidman College of Business Awards.

Jason holds both BBA and MBA degrees from Grand Valley State University.

Speaking Credits

- ▶ Center for Community Progress: Vacant Properties Conference (Courtney Knox)
- ▶ Council of Michigan Foundations: Michigan Forum for African Americans in Philanthropy (Robert Thornton-Skillman foundation)
- ▶ Detroit NAACP Freedom Week Panelist
- ▶ New Detroit's Small Business Seminar (Rich Hawkins)
- ▶ National Organization of Black County Officials (Hester Wheeler, Wayne County Executive)
- ▶ CEDAM: "Untangling the Funding Jungle" (Jamie Shriner-Hooper)
- ▶ U of M Social Innovation Summit (Rishi Moudgil)
- ▶ D:hive Funder's Panel (April Boyle)
- ▶ National Association of Black Accountants (Angelo Leslie)
- ▶ CHN's Grafton Ribbon Cutting Emcee
- ▶ Three appearances on Small Talk with Mark Lee